Dance Camera West announces June Film Festival in LA

04/05/2006 (08:02 AM)

Hello Dance Enthusiasts & Hybrid Art Lovers-

I am pleased to bring news of Dance Camera West's annual June film festival:
The 5th Annual "Dance Camera West Film Festival 2006"

(www.dancecamerawest.org) is a unique cinematic experience that focuses on the intersection of cinematography and choreography. DCW is one of only a handful of organizations in the country that present dance film, and the only one of its kind in southern California. Think more "avant-garde" than Flashdance.

When: Throughout the entire month of June (confirmed dates so far: June 2, 3, 10, 15, 21; more being booked every day)

Where: Venues throughout LA such as: REDCAT in downtown LA, The Hammer Museum in Westwood, the Aero on Montanta in Santa Monica and more TBA

What: Over 50 films screened (as well as live and interactive presentations):
Experimental shorts, documentaries, installations and interactive performances on dance from around the world

Prices: $15 - free (see details below)

Dance Camera West is a non-profit organization committed to fostering and promoting the vibrant art of dance film from around the world. DCW aims to bridge the unique mix of film and dance communities in Los Angeles through the exploration of this hybrid genre of dance film that innovatively merges both performance and cinematic aesthetics. DCW also strives to create a broader and more engaged audience for dance and dance films.

Mark your calendar to experience a new hybrid where Cinematography and Choreography collide. Dance Camera West is the only organization bringing this vibrant art form to southern California. Please join us for the Opening Night Kick-Off Party and Screenings at REDCAT on Friday, June 2, 2006 at 8:00pm.
