by Lynn on May 25th, 2008

The 2nd Annual Choreography Media Honors (CMH) is returning to the Director's Guild of America to celebrate and honor outstanding achievements in choreography for the camera. The event, will take place in conjunction with the 7th Annual 2008 Dance Camera West Media Film Festival, a highly lauded Los Angeles month long festival devoted to the merging of choreography and cinema in Hollywood on Friday, June 13, 2008.

Last year's CMH event was hosted by Paula Abdul, Kenny Ortega, Carrie Ann Inaba, and Adam Shankman was a resounding success attended by the entertainment industry's premier dancers, choreographers, producers, and directors. This year's CMH hosts haven't been released yet, but I'm sure they will be major celebrities from the world of dance. It should be an exciting event.

I'll let you know more as the details are released.
